

Mediterranean and pan-European forecast and Early Warning System against natural hazards (MedEWSa)

WORLD
METEOROLOGICAL
ORGANIZATION

Strengthening early warning systems (EWS) against natural hazards in four twin pilot sites.

NOVEMBER 2023 -
OCTOBER 2026

Providing novel solutions to ensure timely, precise, and actionable impact and finance forecasting, and early warning systems that support the rapid deployment of first responders to vulnerable areas.

FOCUS AREAS

Early Warning

€5M

INVESTMENT

8

COUNTRIES COVERED

Egypt, Ethiopia, Georgia, Greece, Italy, Slovakia, Spain, Sweden

OUTPUTS

- Multi-hazards risk transfer dashboard
- E-learning materials and workshops
- Handbook of best practices and warning messaging templates to address societal challenges related to natural hazard impacts

Learn more

