

CREWS South Asia

Unlocking South Asia Regional Synergies for Resilience Building through Enhanced Access to Early Warning Services

JUNE 2025 -
JUNE 2029

5.2M  US$

INVESTMENT

COUNTRIES COVERED

Bangladesh, Maldives, Myanmar, Nepal

To strengthen regional collaboration for improved hydrometeorological and early warning services in South Asia.

FOCUS AREAS

Forecasting

Early Warning

Data Management

Service Delivery

Observations

OUTPUTS

- South Asia Hydromet Forum (SAHF) strategic dialogues and high-level engagement deepened
- Cooperation among forecasters of the SAHF region enhanced
- Hydrometeorological and early warning services enhanced through regional collaboration
- Co-development of the observation network and data exchange expanded
- Forecasting Capacities improved
- New forecasting techniques prototyped and EWS piloted
- Last-mile connectivity to reach end users supported and mainstreamed
- Early warning programmes driven by people-centered and gender responsive principles

Learn more

